About – IAITSS, SETS, QUT and IITM

IAITSS

Indo-Australian IT Security Society is a registered trust which works to foster Indo-Australian collaboration in IT

Security. It works closely with Governments, Academia, Professional Bodies and Industry on a range of IT security issues.

Society for Electronic Transactions and Security (SETS) is an initiative of the Central Government through the Office of the Principal Scientific Adviser (PSA) to the Government of India. SETS was set up for the purpose of nucleating, sensitising and developing technologies that can protect the information wealth of the country. Such an idea to form a specialized organisation in the area of information security was conceived by Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, formerly the Hon'ble President of India and was implemented by Dr. R.Chidambaram, PSA to the Government of India. SETS is the first organisation in India established in the Public-Private Partnership mode that is engaged in information security. SETS has its headquarter at Chennai close to IITM Research Park in Taramani, Chennai, with the Advanced Facility in Information Security and Cryptology(AFISC). SETS is engaged in the research areas of hardware security, network security and cryptology. SETS has signed various MoUs with leading Institutions specializing in information security, as a part of this SETS has initiated a programme with Institute of Mathematical Sciences (IMSc) to engage in research in Cryptanalysis.

Queensland University of Technology (QUT) is a highly successful Australian university with an applied emphasis in courses and research. Based in Brisbane with a global outlook, it has 40,000 students, including 6000 from overseas and an annual budget of more than AU$500 million. Courses are in high demand and its graduate employment rate is well above the national average for Australian universities. Over the years, QUT has grown and changed. From the establishment of the Brisbane School of Arts over 150 years ago, QUT has been at the forefront of innovation and progress in tertiary education.

Indian Institute of Technology Madras (IITM), is one among the foremost institutes of national importance in higher technological education, basic and applied research. In 1956, the German Government offered technical assistance for establishing an institute of higher education in engineering in India. The first Indo-German agreement in Bonn, West Germany for the establishment of the Indian Institute of Technology at Madras was signed in 1959. The Institute was formally inaugurated in 1959 by Prof. Humayun Kabir, Union Minister for Scientific Research and Cultural Affairs. The Institute has fifteen academic departments and a few advanced research centres in various disciplines of engineering and pure sciences, with nearly 100 laboratories organised in a unique pattern of functioning. The campus is located in the city of Chennai, previously known as Madras. Chennai is the state capital of Tamil Nadu, a southern state in India.
